A Fundraising Event for Pancreatic Cancer

ArtCAN, an evening of inspiration and art.
Saturday, November 5th, 2011
6 p.m. - 10 p.m.

ArtCAN will feature works of art from acclaimed artists who are cancer survivors or who have had their lives affected by cancer. Be prepared to be touched by their stories, moved by their works of art and humbled by their stories of perseverance.

Hosted at the Bill Lowe Gallery, Midtown Atlanta the evening will offer hors d'oeuvres, cocktails and fine art for sale and auction, which will raise money and awareness for Pancreatic Cancer Research.

Keynote Speaker: Christine-Iacobuzio Donahue, M.D., Ph.D.,
Associate Professor of Pathology & Oncology, Johns Hopkins
Guest Speaker: Carol Sbarge, WSB-TV2 News Anchor

Event Tickets: $75
Host & Patron Levels: $150 - $500
Corporate Sponsorship Packages: $1500 - $10,000

The curatorial panel consisting of Marianne Lambert, highly-acclaimed art consultant, Jerry Cullum, accomplished art critic, Timothy Tew, owner TEW Contemporary Fine Art Gallery, and Kevin Sipp, curator Hammonds House Museum, will be selecting the artists and pieces to be auctioned and exhibited for sale at this prestigious event. Call for Artists is officially open until August 15th. These exclusive artists will be featured on the ArtCAN website at www.jcm-ArtCAN.org, relating a bit of their personal stories and showcasing their work.
